- You will meet interesting people, some amateurs and some skilled professional artisans, all of whom are willing to instruct and eager to help.
- You will enjoy fun and fellowship.

COST: None... All shell creations made by our volunteers remain at the Community House.

HISTORY: The Sanibel Shell Crafters have been meeting weekly since the late 1920's. The group, which was created in order to prepare for the March Shell Fair, is currently under the capable leadership of Goz Gosselin, Betty Gardner and Dorothy Harper. The items created by this fun loving group of volunteers are sold at the Sanibel Shell Fair each March. The proceeds from this sale go toward maintaining the historical Sanibel Community House.

SHELLS: Since we are largely depend on donations for our supply of shells, we welcome your collection.
